ABOUT ME

I am a web developer who integrates both front-end and back-end aspects, providing comprehensive services for creating websites and applications.

EXPERIENCE

Lead Web Developer
Mobiversal Co.
July 2024- August 2024

During my internship at Mobiversal in Oradea, I led the front-end team in developing a web application with React, enhancing performance and user experience.

My role involved team coordination, front-end development, mentorship, and collaboration with back-end team.

Junior C Embedded Developer
Forvia Hella Co.
April 2024- May 2024

I participated in a workshop focused on Embedded C, Simulink, and MATLAB, where I learned to develop software applications for embedded systems, explored modeling and simulating processes.
